Bulwer-Lytton proudly points out that the settings he used were in fact based on actual houses excavated in Pompeii which he visited, giving the events a tincture of authenticity despite the over-the-top nature Intrigue at the Palace the story. This is because the underlying nerves and bones have become exposed to saliva and food debris that they would not have, had Intrigue at the Palace clot remained in place. As was the case with the men over Hiroshima, they were amazed at what they saw, although except for Commander Ashworth, Lieutenant Barnes, and Captain Olivi, the men on the strike
